

Transdev Group appoints Damien Stéffan as Group Director of Media and External Relations

Issy-les-Moulineaux (France), October 31, 2025 - Transdev Group announces the appointment of Damien Stéffan as Group Director of Media and External Relations, effective November 3, 2025. He will report to Kim Beddard-Fontaine, Group Chief Communications Officer.

Damien began his career as a journalist at Agence France-Presse (AFP) in London and then Paris (2005-2009), before moving into political communications at the City of Paris (2010-2013) and then at the office of the Minister of the Budget, Bernard Cazeneuve (2013-2014). He then held positions in communications and public affairs at Total Energies (2014-2019) and Deliveroo France (2020-2022). In November 2022, he became chief of staff at Réseau Canopé, a public operator under the supervision of the Ministry of National Education, until June 2025. After a four-month assignment at Amazon France in the summer of 2025, he joins Transdev group.

"I am thrilled to be joining Transdev group, an operator which takes concrete action to improve people's lives through safe and innovative mobility solutions. I am very eager to contribute to promoting this leading brand," stated Damien Stéffan.

Damien Stéffan holds a master's degree in history from Sorbonne Paris IV university and a postgraduate degree in journalism from the Institut français de presse (IFP, Paris II).
