

G7: Transdev named official partner of the Évian Summit

Évian (France), June 15, 2026 – Transdev, a leading mobility player active in 19 countries, is an official partner of the G7 Évian Summit, taking place June 13–18, 2026.

"Transdev is proud to serve as an official partner of the Évian Summit and to contribute to its smooth running by ensuring seamless transportation for delegates and journalists. I would like to thank Ambassador Jean-Pierre Asvazardourian, Secretary-General of the French G7 Presidency, and his teams, for his trust in our teams," said Edouard Hénaut, CEO France of Transdev.

"We are pleased to have Transdev's expertise on board to manage transportation for this major diplomatic event, and we know we can count on the company's full commitment," said Jean-Pierre Asvazardourian, Ambassador and Secretary-General of the French G7 Presidency.

Under the agreement signed with the Secretariat-General of the French G7 Presidency, Transdev will manage and operate dedicated transportation lines serving journalists and delegates throughout the summit.

The transportation plan, based on coaches, buses and shuttles, will connect delegate and journalist accommodations with the International Press Center (IPC) and the Advanced Press Center. A dedicated booking system has been developed specifically for the event.

Since June 13, 30 drivers, 10 traffic controllers and 20 vehicles are deployed, supported by an operational control and dispatch center. The operation will run through June 18.

Transdev, which carries 14 million passengers daily, brings along proven expertise in major international sporting events, including Paris 2024 and the UTMB® in Chamonix, as well as large-scale exceptional transportation deployments.
