

TRANSDEV APPOINTS ALEXANDRE MORA AS DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT AND SALES FRANCE

Issy-Les-Moulineaux (France), September 26, 2023 – Alexandre Mora, 43, has been appointed Transdev's new Director of Development and Sales France, effective October 16, 2023.

Reporting to Edouard Hénaut, CEO France of Transdev, and member of the French Management Committee, he will be responsible for the Offers Department, the Regional Development Department, the Mixed Economy and Technical Assistance Department and the Green Financing and Partnerships/Sales Performance Department.

Alexandre Mora is a graduate of the Institut d'Etudes Politiques (IEP) in Bordeaux and holds a postgraduate degree (DEA) in Political Science. He is also an auditor of the Institut des Hautes Etudes de Défense Nationale (IHEDN).

Alexandre Mora began his career in 2003 as an assistant to a Member of the European Parliament. From 2004 to 2006, he worked in the office of the Mayor of Nîmes, then as Chief of Staff to the Mayor of Bourg-en-Bresse. From 2008 to 2014, he was General Manager of the Charles de Gaulle Memorial, before becoming Chief of Staff for the Greater Reims Urban Community and the City of Reims.

For the past 5 years, Alexandre Mora has been Chief of Staff to the President of the Grand Est Region in France.

Edouard Hénaut, CEO France of Transdev, comments: "I am delighted to welcome Alexandre Mora to the Transdev Group. I have no doubt that, with his solid experience of over 20 years working with local authorities, he will capitalize on his in-depth knowledge of local issues."
